

Area of Interest	Related Professions	Primary Skill Set Acquisition	Possible Work Sector
Physed	Aquatics Program Coordinator Athlete Athletic Therapists Coaches, Trainers Community Recreation and Leisure Professional Dance Educators Emergency Medical Responder Emergency Medical Technician Entrepreneurs Ergonomics Consultants Exercise Physiologist Fitness Consultants Fitness Instructor Functional Abilities Evaluator Geriatric Recreational and Leisure Activities Coordinator Kinesiologist Leaders of Community Wellness Programs (eg. therapeutic recreation, outdoor pursuits, physical activity and fitness programming) Occupational Health Consultants Outdoor Adventure Leader Personal Trainers Physical Education Teachers (elementary, junior and senior high school) Physiologists Physiotherapist Professors/Instructors in Post-secondary Institutions Program Leaders (people with disabilities, seniors) Recreation Officer Recreation Therapist Researchers (private industry, community organizations, private health clubs) Sales Specialist in the Sport Equipment Industry Sport Facility Administrators, Managers, Designers Sport or Marketing Managers (working with elite athletes, amateur/professional teams, sport governing bodies) Sport Scientists Summer Camp Manager Vocational Rehabilitation Specialist Work Disability Consultant Work Site Analyst	Ability to apply scientific knowledge towards devising a plan Ability to work well with others Advanced skills and leadership in athletics and physical fitness Advising Analytical and problem solving skills Coaching Competent in using various types of technology Coordination Coronary disease risk assessment and detection Good oral and written communication skills Heat stress prevention techniques Hydration science and biomechanics Learn about community and personal health issues Learn methods and procedures for training and conditioning Listening skills Patience and empathy Skills in observation, assessment, and organization Skills in science and mathematics Time management and organization	Athletic organizations Business Management Chiropractic Construction Education Facility and event management Fitness Government Health Industry Insurance Medicine Non-profit organizations Occupational therapy Pre-hospital care programming Protection (law enforcement) services Rehabilitation medicine Sales Sport marketing Sports and outdoor recreation organizations Tourism and hospitality Tourism and hospitality

Area of Interest based on answer from the Survey

The typical related Professions from area of Interest

The typical core skills acquired through the academic program.

The typical work sectors associated with the area of interest.